FOCUS OF THE TRAINING

By the end of the training, delegates will have a clear understanding of the role the classroom teacher plays in meeting the needs of pupils identified as having special educational needs and / or disabilities.

OUTLINE OF THE TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT PACKAGE

• Delegates will have the opportunity to see teachers working with children with SEN and they will be able to explore and discuss the effectiveness of such strategies with teachers
• Delegates will learn how targets on Individual Education Plans can be achieved in a busy classroom setting and how they can be measured in a useful way which supports children to make the best possible progress
• Delegates will learn how to set targets for the children they teach which help them to make the best progress
• Delegates will be given a range of strategies to take back to their classroom to enhance their own practice.

COURSE LEADERS

Juliet Robinson, Assistant Headteacher, St Mary's CE Primary School and other experienced St Mary's staff.
