FOCUS OF THE TRAINING

Are all of your pupils making the same rates of progress? Would you like to explore how a child-led, outdoor curriculum can benefit ALL children whatever their individual learning and development needs?

This training will give an introduction to the advantages of 'Forest School teaching and learning' to raise expectations in EYFS and KS1.

Delegates will have:

- the opportunity to consider their existing provision with a view to creating an enabling outdoor learning environment
- an overview of key principles and benefits of Forest School practice in supporting children's learning. Including practical resource and ideas.

OUTLINE OF THE TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT PACKAGE

- An introduction to the philosophy of Forest Schools
- Opportunity to observe a Forest School session
- Discussion regarding developing outdoor learning and practical, low cost, ideas for delegates to take back to their own school
- Visit and observe a high quality outdoor learning environment that provides opportunities that reflect Forest School practices and principles
- Increase staff confidence in creating an enabling environment outdoors
- Managing risk and risk assessments.

COURSE LEADERS

Alison Taylor, Forest School Practitioner, and Claire White, Headteacher of Hornsea Nursery School, and other experienced staff from the school.
